

Content

Editorial	3
ARTICLES: Main Topic: National Research Reports (Part I)
Manuela du Bois-Reymond Extended Education in the Netherlands	5
Marianne Schüpbach & Benjamin von Allmen Swiss National Report on Research on Extended Education	18
Ludwig Stecher & Sabine Maschke Research on Extended Education in Germany – A General Model with All-day Schooling and Private Tutoring as Two Examples	31
Sang Hoon Bae & Sue Bin Jeon Research on Afterschool Programs in Korea: Trends and Outcomes	53
FREE CONTRIBUTIONS
Andrea E. Vest, Joseph L. Mahoney & Sandra D. Simpkins Patterns of Out-Of-School Time Use Around the World: Do They Help to Explain International Differences in Mathematics and Science Achievement	71
Maria Hjalmarsson Governance and Voluntariness for Children in Swedish Leisure-Time Centres: Leisure-Time Teachers Interpreting Their Tasks and Everyday Practice	86
REVIEWS SECTION
Adam C. Sheppard After-School Centers and Youth Development: Case Studies of Success and Failure. Barton J. Hirsh, Nancy L. Deutsch, and David L. DuBois. New York: Cambridge University Press, 2011	97

Stephan Kielblock

“Schools can ignore what lies beyond their gates, but they cannot escape it!”

Colleen Cummings, Alan Dyson, & Liz Todd: Beyond the School Gates.

Can Full Service and Extended Schools Overcome Disadvantage?

Oxford: Routledge 2011 101

AUTHOR’S INFORMATION

Authors 105