Joy, Reflections, Resistance – LGBTIQ+ Lived Realities in Africa

Scholarly and
Activist Perspectives

ISBN 978-3-8474-3151-0
eISBN 978-3-8474-3288-3

This book brings together activist and scholarly perspectives from different African countries on the multifaceted lived realities of LGBTIQ+ persons, exploring their experiences of violence and their resistance strategies. It examines the impact of colonial legacies, the solidarity across LGBTIQ+ communities, and the ways in which scholars and activists can connect and foster practices of solidarity.
