

Contents

Introduction	3
Alessandro Porrovecchio
Doing sex research: History, methods and ethical criticalities	6
Alessandro Porrovecchio
Social transaction: A relevant paradigm for the sociology of sexuality and gender?	23
Christophe Gibout
Reflections on methods in research in sex and sexuality with disabled people	39
Emma Sheppard
Researching trans people: Ethics through method	53
Christina Richards
Conducting ethical sexuality research with children and young people: Tensions, ambiguities and contradictions	65
Allison Moore
Researching sexuality and drug addiction	80
Gabriele Di Francesco
The sociologist as cruiser: Masculinities, deviance and sexuality in gay sex work arenas	96
Cirus Rinaldi
Between ethics and norms: The problem of normative perceptions of sex and sexuality research	112
Paul Reynolds
Notes on Contributors	126